REDSKIN SCORES AGAIN.

The first runup in a selling race occurred at Forsyth yesterday, when Helen H. Gardener was advanced $500 over her entered price of $200, after she had won in impressive style, by Jim Givins, and eventually bought in by her owner, W. H. Roller, for an extra $5. As the purse was only $200, it was an expensive win. Roller was angry over the transaction and almost immediately after sold the filly to Dan Honig for $500.

After Bridget had beaten Roslyn she was raised from $500 to $805 and bid in. The ring yesterday was reduced to one of fifteen books. It did well on the volume of business but could not hold its own on the play. Creveling & Dwyer's starting machine was used in all the events yesterday with marked success. In the handicap, after three or four breakaways, it was discarded, owing to the refusal of Floreanna to break, and the lot were sent off in the old way. The track was in fairly good shape after its drenching, but rather heavy. The racing was good.

Helen H. Gardener captured the opening event easily, Willie Shannon coming fast in the stretch, and securing the place from Newhouse. Cherry Flame, a good looking daughter of Iroquois and Hattie S in the colors of the Flash Stable, but owned by R. Fitzgerald, took the two-year-olds race.

Roslyn was favorite in the third event at five furlongs, and would probably have won, but rounding the first turn he came to his knees, and nearly unseated Irving. As it was he made a great bid for the race, and was fast overhauling Bridget at the finish.

In the handicap Redskin trailed to the head of the stretch. Then he made his bid and easily overhauling Ashland and Simmons—who had made the running—won handily.

Eloroy and Fusilier were most fancied for the mile. Evanatus was at a false betting price. Evanatus, always in a good place, went to the front at the three-quarters and won handily, Fusilier just beating Semele for the place. The stable did not back Evanatus, but it had played Roslyn enthusiastically.

John Brenock scored another trick by winning the last race with Uncas, who ran well, Republic landing the place money.

Jim Sellers arrived at the track yesterday from Louisville with Brown Dick's stable and three of Hankins & Johnston's string. Among Brown Dick's are Forerunner, Pinchback and La Creole.

Louis Ezell will reach the track to-day from California with his horses. He brings with them Sutton, the full brother to Diggs, owned by Hankins & Johnston.

Phil Chinn telegraphed from Kentucky yesterday for twenty-one stalls.

FREE ADVICE HAS A CLOSE CALL.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 21.—The handicap furnished an exciting finish to-day. Free Advice, the 9 to 10 favorite, winning by a short head from Rey del Mar. The latter sulked throughout and simply raced the last quarter. Free Advice acted so badly at the post that the machine had to be abandoned and the race started with flag. Five straight favorites won, and only the victory of Joe o' Sot over Miss Clark saved the ring from a complete drubbing. It threatened rain all day and the attendance was greatly decreased. The racing was generally uneventful and the track fast.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Henry of Navarre is the 3 to 1 favorite for the Brooklyn and at 2½ to 1 for the Suburban.

Joe Ullman will probably book in the East with his brother Alex all season.

Secretary Parmer of Windsor declares for a meeting to open May 9, and run until Detroit's opening in August.

Mike Dwyer's band of horses, of which Ben Brush is the figure, were shipped from New York Saturday, and are safely at Louisville.

Tom Griffin's Sir Vassar arrived at Cincinnati from San Francisco Saturday last, and landed safe and well at Louisville Sunday. The colt is almost a certain starter in the Kentucky Derby.

The training establishment of the late "Mr. Abington has been purchased for £60,000 by W. Joel, one of the South African millionaires, who has engaged Charles Archer as his trainer.

The best work yet done by a two-year-old around Cincinnati this season was furlongs by Dr. Henry Adkins's chestnut colt McFarland, by Whistle Jacket, out of Queen Elizabeth, 1:03 last week.
